

1. Describe the photo. This is a photo of me in a boy scout uniform, where I participated in fun activities with other boy scout student

2. What was the most important to you at this age? Why? At this age, the important thing to me are friends, school, doing fun activities and learning a new skill. Having a friends and companion while growing is the best experience in life

3. What was the significant event that happened in your life at this age?

Relate the memory. Making a new friends and learning something fun activities for the first time

4. Who was the person you remember the most at this age? Why? My parents and friends, because my parents is always there to look at me and support me to everything, and friends because whatever the activity I do, they do it too.

5. What significant change/s happened to you at this age? At this age, I learned how to be independent, taking responsibility and experiencing new environment outside home because in boy scout your parents can't be with you so im alone in this place.

6. Have all of your past experiences made you a better person? How? Yes ofcourse, because past experience teach valuable lesson, whether good or bad, they help build character.

7. If you were to change anything in your past, what would it be? Why? If I will change anything from my past, it will be being more confindent and trying new things sooner.

8. Are you happy with yourself now. Of course I am, im happy what I am now and thankful to my younger self because he made me what I am today